Multilingual Phone Service

If you're a customer of the Department of Human Services and speak a language other than English we can provide you with specialised services.

For Centrelink enquiries, the department offers a national, multilingual phone service with staff who can help you in your own language.

With more than 20 languages available, a skilled bilingual service officer will be able to help you.

To speak to someone in your language call 131 202 between eight o'clock in the morning and five o'clock in the afternoon.

If you have an enquiry about Medicare or Child Support, you can call the Translating and Interpreting Service, TIS National, on 131 450.

The operator will connect you with an interpreter who speaks your language, and will then call us.
