

Budget 2019-20

This information is accurate as at 2 April 2019.

Fourth Action Plan (2019-22) to reduce violence against women and their children

This measure explores opportunities to enhance service delivery for people affected by family and domestic violence. This includes identifying improvements to help those affected by family and domestic violence to have their Centrelink, Medicare and Child Support needs addressed in one interaction with staff.

This measure does not affect eligibility for payments.

This measure is not subject to the passage of legislation.

Who is affected by this measure?

The department supports people affected by family and domestic violence. This measure identifies opportunities to improve support for those affected by family and domestic violence.

When will this start and finish?

This measure starts 1 July 2019 and ends 30 June 2021.