

Budget 2019-20

This information is accurate as at 2 April 2019.

Concessional Treatment for the Forced Sale of Livestock under the Farm Household Allowance Program

This measure encourages customers to make long term financial plans for their business by investing income for the future.

From 1 July 2019, income from the forced sale of livestock will be exempt from the Farm Household Allowance income test if it is invested in a Farm Management Deposit account.

Who is affected by this measure?

This measure affects people claiming or receiving Farm Household Allowance from 1 July 2019.

When will this start and finish?

This measure starts 1 July 2019 and ends 30 June 2020.