

Freedom of Information Request

Information requested:

The percentage of females to males that receive child support payment through the csa.

Information Provided:

Customers identified as receiving parents only, 92 per cent were female and 8 per cent were male.