

When to use this form

Use this form if you are:

- a migrant living in Australia
- applying for permanent residency and living in Australia
- a visitor to Australia
- an Australian citizen returning to live in Australia
- a New Zealand citizen living in Australia, or
- a permanent resident visa holder (previously enrolled) returning to live in Australia.

This form allows up to 5 people to be listed on your Medicare card(s) (including the contact person). If more than 5 names are to be included on your card(s), attach the additional details on a separate sheet(s).

All correspondence, including the Medicare card(s) will be sent to the contact person.

For more information

For more information about Medicare or for assistance completing this form go to our website humanservices.gov.au/medicare or email medicare@humanservices.gov.au or call 132 011.

Filling in this form

- Please use black or blue pen
- Print in BLOCK LETTERS
- Mark boxes like this with a ✓ or X
- Where you see a box like this Go to 5 skip to the question number shown. You do not need to answer the questions in between.

Returning your form

Check that you have answered all the questions you need to answer and that you have signed and dated this form.

Return your completed form and original or certified documents to your nearest Medicare Service Centre. For initial enrolments, all people 15 years of age and over on the application must go with you to a Medicare Service Centre.

If you live in an area remote from a Medicare Service Centre, or there is a reason for not being able to attend, you can send your application together with certified copies of documents and the reason for not being able to attend in person, to:

Department of Human Services
GPO Box 9822
in your capital city

Applicant(s) circumstances and documents required

Migrant (holder of a permanent resident visa)

Documents required

- current passports and valid visa or original visa grant letter for all people listed on the application.

Applying for permanent residency

People who have applied for a permanent resident visa (except for a parent visa) may be eligible for the Medicare and Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme programs if they have a visa authorising their stay in Australia and:

- have permission to work, or
- their parent, spouse or child is an Australian citizen or holds an Australian permanent resident visa.

Documents required

- current passport or travel document for each person being enrolled
- valid visa or original visa grant letter for each person being enrolled
- where the applicants do not have permission to work, it is necessary to provide proof of their relationship with a spouse, parent or child who is an Australian citizen or an Australian permanent resident visa holder.

Receipt from the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) when you paid to apply for permanent residency may be required.

Information about visas, applications and receipts, will be accepted if on letterhead or by email from DIAC and addressed to the applicant or registered migration agent.

Note: People travelling on a visa subclass 309 or 310 only need to provide their passport and visa.

Visitors to Australia

Visitors that are residents of the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Sweden, Slovenia, Norway, Finland, Italy, Malta, Belgium, the Republic of Ireland and New Zealand* may be eligible under the Reciprocal Health Care Agreement.

Visitors from Malta and Italy must be both residents and citizens of those countries. They are eligible for a period of 6 months from their date of arrival in Australia.

* Visitors from the Republic of Ireland and New Zealand will not be enrolled in Medicare. Reciprocal Health Care Agreements provide access as a public patient in a public hospital including outpatient services and medicines available on prescription, which are subsidised under the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme for medically necessary treatment.

Documents required

- current passport and valid visa for all applicants.
- Further documents may be required.
